

VISUAL MIDRASH

WHAT IS VISUAL MIDRASH?

Midrash is the lively interpretation of Judaic texts. Chana's artwork guides the viewer into a dialogue with Judaism by weaving insights, symbols, and sacred texts into compelling visual stories that engage the intellect and spirit.

LEADER AND DONOR TRIBUTES

The Hebrew word mazkeret means memento or keepsake. Chana works with clients to create pieces that are personal and meaningful for donors, leaders, and honorees in the community.

WORKING WITH CHANA

Chana is available to create:

- Architectural installations and sanctuary fixtures
- Donor walls
- Tribute Paintings
- Mezuzot, tzedaka boxes and other ritual objects
- Hand-embellished greeting cards with discussion prompts
- For more information, follow the links below

ABOUT CHANA ZELIG

A Judaic artist, Chana Zelig realized that art for her is a creative journey and intellectual pursuit that brings her closer to the Jewish faith and its divine expression in her life. Her artworks capture images and texts as spirited insights and reflections of sacred literature, ritual, tradition, and history. Her work is collected nationally in private collections, synagogues, and educational institutions.

CUSTOM ARTWORKS FOR JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS

Chana interviews clients to learn about their values and mission. The custom artworks she creates are opportunities to honor individuals and celebrate the larger community. She weaves the specific character of the community into the narrative of the artwork, thereby creating a distinctive artwork that will be treasured for years to come.

